

Roosevelt –Vanderbilt National Historic Sites

Monitoring in a Climate of Change. A Primer on Climate Change and NETN Monitoring Initiatives

Join the Northeast Temperate Network's Science Communication Specialist Ed Sharron for a presentation on Climate Change. The talk will include a brief overview of NETN, Inventory & Monitoring, and some Roosevelt-Vanderbilt NHS weather/climate data that has recently been compiled by the network.

The program also explores the differences between weather and climate, links between fossil fuel use and CO<sub>2</sub>, and explores a few alternative energy technologies.
